

Elgar Encyclopedia of Wine Business and Tourism

Draft entries should be submitted in .docx (Word) format as email attachments to: donna.sears@acadiau.ca no later than 01 June 2025.

Entry Template

Title: This is your entry title as given in your invitation to contribute email.

Abstract: 100 words that describes your entry. (This will not be published in the Elgar Encyclopedia of Wine Business and Tourism but will be used to enhance the searchability of its content.)

Keywords: Up to six keywords (may use other topics from the Encyclopedia).

Topic: Word count as assigned in invitation email is for topic content only and does not include abstract or references. Content must include a formal definition that appears near the beginning of your entry, and may incorporate:

- a. Roots, background, and/or historical beginnings.
- b. Synonymous terminology (i.e., Méthode Traditionelle and Traditional Method).
- c. Latest understanding of the topic (including research and/or practice norms).
- d. List and discuss at least 1 example (if applicable).
- e. Final thoughts.
- f. Things to consider before applying the idea.

References

List up to 10 references.

Use the Harvard Style Guide published on the encyclopedia website.

A maximum of three self-citing (e.g., publications written by the entry author).

Contact information

Author Name(s) (please indicate corresponding author)

University, City, Country

Email address